Chapel Notes

Late Night Cocoa - otherwise known as Port & Muffins

Relax after a demanding day, enjoying toasted muffins with port, juice, tea and hot chocolate from 10.30pm in Y1 on Wednesdays - make it a highlight of your week. A perfect end to the day.

Informal Gatherings

It's good to balance work, rest and play, so keep an eye out for occasional activities such as film, pizza, music, visits, meal/discussion and other chances to enjoy the company of others.

Short Guided Meditation (non-religious)

It is good to stop, step back and relax the mind. 10min-med on Wednesday 10.15pm, in Y1.

The Chapel Library

Whether it is the interface between science and religion, prayer, how to understand the Bible or other intriguing questions – you'll find great books in the Lady Chapel. Everyone is very welcome to browse: simply sign them out – and bring them back!

The Choir

Our excellent Choir sings at three services a week, tours at home and abroad, and is planning exciting recording projects this year. Contact the Director of Music or the Organ Scholars for further information (see page 2). Choir CD recordings are available from the Porter's Lodge.

Chapel Wardens

Volunteers help welcome people to services, give out hymnbooks and light candles and enjoy dinner. If you would like to assist, contact the Chapel Secretary, Celia Summerlin (cs779@cam.ac.uk).

Christian Union

The College Christian Union meets each week for prayer, worship, bible study and fellowship. Contact the CU reps, Eleanor (eckc2) and Sarah (sl678), for more details.

Roman Catholic Chaplaincy

The University's Roman Catholic Chaplaincy meets at Fisher House in Guildhall Street where daily mass is held. Contact Camille Lardy (cmhl2) for information.

*Chill-out and get ready for sleep with Hot Chocolate,
Juice, Muffins and Port every Wednesday night from 10.30pm in Y1
The perfect way to end your day*
